WHAT WE LOVE ABOUT OUR HOME

- This condo is located in the heart of a great community and is within walking distance to so many amenities.
- The grocery store and shoppers are less than a minute away.
- We have incredible unobstructed views of the sunrise which has become a morning ritual--with coffee
- The fact that there is so much green space is incredible, so when we're not using our balcony we are certainly taking full advantage of the parks. If you're looking to work on your short game look no further, because TAM O'Shanter gold club is right around the corner
- The property manager has been great and it will be one of the things we will miss most about this property.
